Welcome

The Office of Institutional Research (OIR) is responsible for campus-wide institutional research activities and initiatives, including the organization, collection and analysis of campus data in response to requests from internal and external organizations.

UCSF in Quick Numbers

- Total student and trainee population in fall 2016 is 5,785:
  - Students: 3,178 (excluding 209 off-campus in joint programs)
  - Medical, Dental and Pharmacy Residents & Fellows: 1,551
  - Postdoctoral Scholars: 1,056

- Of the 936 new students in the fall 2016 entering class:
  - 65% were women
  - 56% were California residents
  - 27% were first in their generation to graduate from college
  - 50% were first in their generation to attend graduate school
- Eleven percent of the new members in our community were born outside the U.S. They came from 37 different countries.

- In academic year 2015-16, we awarded 992 degrees, including 455 professional doctorates, 123 PhDs, 361 master's degrees, and 53 postgraduate certificates.

- In fiscal year 2014-2015, UCSF’s total research and development expenditure in life sciences research was $1,075,635 million, ranked #1 among all higher education institutions.

» More [1]